David Jumps Down Under

Last weekend saw the climax of the Summer Continental Cup Mogul Tour at Mt Buller, Australia . The event took place on the Wood Run course in very difficult icy conditions and was dominated by the Canadian entries. Dale Begg- Smith took 1st place, narrowly finishing above Trennon Paynter, with younger brother Jason Begg- Smith in 4th place. Michael Robertson, who shot to fame with a 10th place in World Cup last winter, could not hold off the Canadian challenge and finished 3rd.

Britain's only entry Andy David, 23 from Nott's, continued his good form down under to finish a respectable 8th, putting him 11th overall on the tour standings.

Andy is now due to fly home to resume his dry land training program in the build up to the next European winter. He will be based in Verbier and will compete with the Aussi Team on the Europa Cup Tour.

He will be joined on the Europa Cup circuit by other members of the British Moguls Development Team, Martin Nankoo and Stuart Greenshields and the New School Development Team of Tom Last and Andy Bennett. Tom and Andy may also be seen at the first World Cup Half Pipe events this season, with team-mate Simon Bates the sole Brit in World Cup Moguls.
