

Martin Carr

---

From: "Martin Carr" <martin.carr@freestylesnowsports.co.uk>
To: "Martin Carr" <martin.carr@freestylesnowsports.co.uk>
Sent: 06 November 2003 14:15
Subject: British Team Freestyle Skier Beats the Best at the London Ski Show

British Team Freestyle Skier Beats the Best at the London Ski Show

Andy Bennet (Line Skis, North Face) beat International competition in every single competitive round at the London Ski Show (except the final event due to illness). Andy who will shortly be competing in the inaugural skiing World Cup Half Pipe event, won four biggest air and best trick events, again showing the class that has made him one of the stars of Warren Smiths latest snow flick "Snows in the House II".

Andy is one of the hottest new properties of Britains burgeoning Freestyle scene - with a long list of competitive, photo and video commitments. After the first two European World Cup Half Pipe events, he will be basing himself in Mammoth for much of this season before returning to Europe for the seasons final round of New School and Bump events.