

Selection Criteria

The current FIS point system makes it difficult to separate athletes outside the top 30. SSE and SSGB have maintained a ranking system similar to the old FIS point system called the Selection Index Point system. This is maintained for Moguls and will be maintained for aerials. Details of how this is calculated can be found in the British Selection Policy

England Squad Selection for Moguls

Individuals may apply for consideration in writing.

The selection committee may offer individuals places that have not applied in writing on a discretionary basis.

The selectors decisions are discretionary and the selection criteria are merely guidelines. Any deviations must be documented.

Injuries will be taken into consideration for squad selection/ reselection if received in writing.

Development Squad

Competed in snow events and training on Mountain snow.

Have some potential in the eyes of the selectors to eventually reach British Squad status.

Have appropriate coaches report

Those who have not progressed to the B team after 2 years in the development squad will usually not re-selected

England B Squad

Must have competed in Mountain snow events.

Competed in snow events at a level considered by the selection committee to show suitable proficiency (Should have scored a minimum of 12 points in the British Championships, Home Nation Championships or similar snow competitions).

Have potential in the eyes of the selectors to reach British Squad status.

Behave in a manner expected of an individual representing their country.

Have appropriate coach's reports.

Those who have not progressed to the A team after 2 years in the B team will usually not be re-selected

England A Squad

Competed at Europa Cup level, equivalent or above. Competed in snow events at a level considered by the selection committee to show suitable proficiency (Should have scored a minimum of 15 points in the British Championships, Home Nation Championships or similar snow competitions). Or have attained a minimum of 450 Selection Index Points.

Meeting the Selection Index Points point criteria gains automatic consideration for selection/reselection if under 25 years of age.

Have potential in the eyes of the selectors to reach British Squad status.

Behave in a manner expected of an individual representing their country.

Have appropriate coach's reports.

Show in the eyes of the selectors the necessary commitment required to achieve British Squad status.

Provide if required video evidence of their performance.

Reselection to A squad status is dependent on participation in snow competitions in the most recent competitive season in either the Northern or Southern hemispheres

England Squad Selection for Ski Cross

Individuals may apply for consideration in writing.

The selection committee may offer individuals places that have not applied in writing on a discretionary basis.

The selectors decisions are discretionary and the selection criteria are merely guidelines. Any deviations must be documented.

Injuries will be taken into consideration for squad selection/ reselection if received in writing.

Development Squad

Competed in Mountain snow events.

Have some potential in the eyes of the selectors to eventually reach British Squad status.

Those who have not progressed to the B team after 2 years in the development squad will usually not re-selected

England B Squad

Competed in snow events at a level considered by the selection committee to show suitable proficiency (Should have a top 8 position in the British Championships, Home Nation Championships or similar snow competitions).

Have potential in the eyes of the selectors to reach British Squad status.

Behave in a manner expected of an individual representing their country.

Have appropriate coach's reports.

Those who have not progressed to the A team after 2 years in the B team will usually not be re-selected

England A Squad

Competed at Europa Cup level, equivalent or above or in none FIS events of an equivalent level.. Competed in snow events at a level considered by the selection committee to show suitable proficiency in International Snow competitions e.g. top 70 at World Cup men, or top 40 women. Or have attained a minimum of 450 Selection Index Points.

Meeting the Selection Index Points point criteria gains automatic consideration for selection/reselection if under 25 years of age.

Have potential in the eyes of the selectors to reach British Squad status.

Behave in a manner expected of an individual representing their country.

Have appropriate coach's reports.

Show in the eyes of the selectors the necessary commitment required to achieve British Squad status.

Provide if required video evidence of their performance.

Reselection to A squad status is dependent on participation in snow competitions in the most recent competitive season in either the Northern or Southern hemispheres

England Squad Selection for Big Air and Halfpipe

Individuals may apply for consideration in writing.

The selection committee may offer individuals places that have not applied in writing on a discretionary basis.

The selectors decisions are discretionary and the selection criteria are merely guidelines. Any deviations must be documented.

Injuries will be taken into consideration for squad selection/ reselection if received in writing.

Development Squad

Competed in Mountain snow events.

Have some potential in the eyes of the selectors to eventually reach British Squad status.

Those who have not progressed to the B team after 2 years in the development team will usually not be re-selected

England B Squad

Competed in Mountain snow events at a level considered by the selection committee to show suitable proficiency (Should have a top 10 position in the British Championships, Home Nation Championships or similar snow competitions).

Have potential in the eyes of the selectors to reach British Squad status.

Behave in a manner expected of an individual representing their country.

Have appropriate coach's reports.

Those who have not progressed to the A team after 2 years in the B squad will usually not re re-selected

England A Squad

Competed at Europa Cup level, equivalent or above or in none FIS events of an equivalent level. Competed in snow events at a level considered by the selection committee to show suitable proficiency.

Have potential in the eyes of the selectors to reach British Squad status.

Behave in a manner expected of an individual representing their country.

Have appropriate coach's reports.

Show in the eyes of the selectors the necessary commitment required to achieve British Squad status.

Provide if required video evidence of their performance.

Reselection to A squad status is dependent on participation in snow competitions in the most recent competitive season in either the Northern or Southern hemispheres

England Squad Selection for Aerials.

Individuals may apply for consideration in writing.

The selection committee may offer individuals places that have not applied in writing on a discretionary basis.

The selectors decisions are discretionary and the selection criteria are merely guidelines. Any deviations must be documented.

Injuries will be taken into consideration for squad selection/ reselection if received in writing.

Development Squad

Can perform two different single jumps with a Degree Of Difficulty of at least 2.0 on a water ramp.

Have some potential in the eyes of the selectors to eventually reach British Squad status.

Have appropriate coaches report

Those who have not progressed to the B team after 2 years in the development team will usually not be re-selected

England B Squad

Must have competed in Mountain snow events.

Must be qualified to perform on snow two different maneuvers with a Degree Of Difficulty of at least 2.3.

Have potential in the eyes of the selectors to reach British Squad status.

Behave in a manner expected of an individual representing their country.

Have appropriate coach's reports.

Those who have not progressed to the A team after 2 years in the B squad will usually not re re-selected

England A Squad

Competed at Europa Cup level, equivalent or above.

Have attained a minimum of 450 Selection Index Points.

Must be qualified to perform on snow two different maneuvers with a Degree Of Difficulty of at least 2.6

Meeting the FIS point criteria gains automatic consideration for selection/reselection if under 25 years of age.

Have potential in the eyes of the selectors to reach British Squad status.

Behave in a manner expected of an individual representing their country.

Have appropriate coach's reports.

Show in the eyes of the selectors the necessary commitment required to achieve British Squad status.

Provide if required video evidence of their performance.

Reselection to A squad status is dependent on participation in snow competitions in the most recent competitive season in either the Northern or Southern hemispheres

England Freestyle Squad Code of Conduct

1. Athletes will have full commitment to national squad training sessions and their personal training.
2. Coaches and Snowsport England Freestyle must be informed regularly of competition results, press releases and any other publicity, which may raise the profile of the sport.
3. If any injuries are sustained, coaches must be informed of the nature of the injury, treatment and progress
4. Any correspondence from Snowsport England, coaches or sponsors must be dealt with quickly and appropriately.
5. Athletes must appear for squad training sessions on time and in appropriate squad uniform.
6. Coaches must be informed if athletes cannot attend a squad session.
7. Athletes will maintain an appropriate fitness level to enable goals to be achieved.
8. Athletes will have no involvement in the use of tobacco products or any other illegal or performance enhancing drugs.
9. Squad members shall not consume alcohol on the day prior to and during competition. Neither will squad members consume alcohol whilst training. It is expected that athletes shall at most only drink moderately outside these periods.
10. Athletes will be invoiced for coaching fees for all squad sessions unless coaches are notified well in advance of their expected absences.
11. Athletes must conduct themselves in a professional manner at all times and be good ambassadors of their country and sport.
12. Athletes must be registered as competitors with Snowsport England

I agree to abide by the above code of conduct.

Signed _____ date _____

Please sign and return one copy of the code of conduct to the squad manager and retain the other copy for your information. Failure to sign and return a copy of this code of conduct within the time period stated will result in deselection from the squad.