Timed Individual Seeding Runs

All athletes will complete two timed seeding runs to determine who progresses to the knock-out rounds and the seeding for the knock-out round.

The timed individual runs will take place in bib order and category order starting with the youngest age group through to the Masters. It will run as follows;

1. Female Snowboard
2. Male Snowboard
3. Female Ski
4. Male Ski

All riders will have 2 timed runs with the best time to be used for seeding. If an athlete fails or is disqualified on both runs then they will be seeded at the end of the group. The fastest 16 athletes in each age category will progress to the knock-out rounds.

Knock-Out Rounds

The fastest 16 in each category will progress into the knock-out rounds. If an athlete finishes outside of the top 16 in their category they will not progress to the knock-out rounds.

Riders will compete two at a time in the knock-out rounds based on seeding from the timed runs. The first rider to cross the line will progress to the next round. Athletes who are knocked out in the semi-finals will compete in a small final to determine positions 3rd and 4th.

Riders who are knocked out in the quarter finals (round of 8) will be ranked on time for positions 5-8 and riders who are knocked out in the round of 16 will be ranked on time for positions 9-16. Riders who don't progress to the finals (round of 16) will be ranked according to time from the qualification runs.

Overall English Champion title

The winner of the overall title will be awarded to the winner of the Open/Senior age category (male ski/female ski, male snowboard/female snowboard). Riders who wish to compete in the open category instead of their age group are welcome to do so and must inform organisers at the time of registration. Any athlete who chooses to do this will not be ranked in their age groups, only the open category. Please let the organisers know if you wish to compete in the Open at the time of making the online registration. Changes to age categories will not be accepted on the day of competition.
